Bugaboo Creek Steak House is under New Ownership

Family-friendly steakhouse invites patrons across the eastern corridor to enjoy exciting enhancements in food, service and atmosphere and LobsterFest starting July 18

New York, NY (July 15, 2011) – Bugaboo Creek Steak House, the casual steak house restaurant known for its family-friendly mountain lodge atmosphere, is pleased to announce that it is now under new ownership by Capitol BC Restaurants LLC, and open for business at 12 locations throughout the Eastern Corridor.

Patrons across Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and New York are invited to visit their nearest Bugaboo Creek Steak House to enjoy exceptional food, service and atmosphere, including the popular annual summer “LobsterFest” menu that many have come to love. “LobsterFest” will be offered July 18 – September 5, featuring both new and long-standing favorites, such as Lobster & Asparagus Topped Filet, Lobster & Shrimp Penne Pasta, Lobster Roll, Lobster & Shrimp Nachos, Lobster Bisque in a bread bowl, and more.

“Since taking ownership of Bugaboo Creek Steak House in late April, our team has been working very hard to provide the finest in food, service and atmosphere for all our guests, while bringing the restaurant back to its original and unique Rocky mountain culture and environment,” said Christopher Campbell, Bugaboo Creek Steak House’s Chief Trail Guide. “From our delicious steaks, seafood, salads and signature dishes, to our fun animatronics show, we are confident that guests of all ages will love coming back to Bugaboo Creek Steak House – we are confident that you’ll notice the difference.”
